Junior English Camps

For Individuals or Groups, Ages 14 - 17

WELCOME

With one of the most vibrant nationality mixes, Junior English Camps at ILAC are designed for students from the age of 14 till 17 who want to learn English in Canada while participating in ILAC's activities and the homestay or residence program.

In the Program students will have a schedule full of interesting cultural and social activities as well as sports and national events. The combination of English studies and exciting excursions will ensure that all students leave with improved language abilities and an experience of a lifetime!

CANADA AND ILAC

- Canada is one of the safest countries in the world rich in natural beauty, lakes, parks and mountains
- Canada is an international mosaic and home to over 80 nationalities
- Compared to other English speaking countries studying in Canada is very affordable
- English classes are taught by native speakers who have years of experience
